FROM THE RABBI

Don't Survive - Thrive!

This Sunday evening begins the 19th of Kislev, a day celebrating the release of Rabbi Schneur Zalman, the founder of Chabad, from a Russian prison over 200 years ago.

Imprisoned for spreading the teachings of Chassidic philosophy, he emerged even stronger and continued his work on a much greater scale.

His experience paved the way for generations to come. No matter what challenges life brings or how trapped one may sometimes feel, staying true to one's Jewish identity and mission, provides the strength, not only to survive but to thrive.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
