FROM THE RABBI

Cyber Monday

Black Friday and Cyber Monday are the two most important shopping days of the year!

In 2018, Cyber Monday sales hit $7.9 billion in the US and Black Friday's reached $6.2 billion, - both breaking records.

It's interesting to note that the Saturday in between was skipped. One explanation is that people like to shop while they are at work, but really it's Divine Providence.

Perhaps, G-d wants to hint to us that Shabbat is not a shopping day. It's a day of spiritual recharge; a day to light candles, have Shabbat dinner and attend Services.

Looking forward to seeing you on Shabbos!

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
