FROM THE RABBI

Chanukah Attack in Monsey

In the middle of a Chanukah party on the seventh night of Chanukah, a terrorist entered a Rabbi's house in Monsey and stabbed three of his sons and a guest.

As we constantly continue to take steps to improve the safety of our community, there is a hidden spiritual message. Kabbala teaches us that Seven represents the cycle of nature, while Eight represents going above nature.

The seventh day of Chanukah was a tragic day, but the 8th day served as a reminder that the existence of the Jewish people is supernatural.

Judaism will prevail!

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

PRESCHOOL

Programs

Thank you to all the parents who joined us at all our Thanksgiving & Chanukah celebrations. The children were so excited to show off all their songs and dances.

Upcoming parent child programs

Our 3 year old classes will be making Challah from scratch and performing all their Shabbat songs on Friday, Jan. 17th.

Baby & Toddler Classes

Registration is underway for new Mom & Me, as well as Bagels & Babies classes. Call or go online to reserve your spot today.

HEBREW SCHOOL

Chanukah unique candles

All our students enjoyed a hands on candle making experience. Each class had time to make their own chanukah candle in a unique shape, as well as play our Gelt Toss while answering Chanukah trivia questions.

Late Night/Shabbaton

Our 5th & 6th graders are invited to a Shabbaton Sleepover on Friday Jan. 24th and our 4th grade students are invited to a special late night Shabbat dinner just for their class, Friday, Jan. 31st. Both groups will enjoy with our famous KGB hiding game in the dark, and lots of food, games & shabbat experiences.
