FROM THE RABBI

Purim and Coronavirus

While the coronavirus hysteria is growing, the holiday of Purim is rapidly approaching.

The story of the Megillah is similar.

Suddenly, out of nowhere, in a country that embraced Jews, their very existence was threatened.

The salvation was just as swift – overnight the whole situation reversed.

Let's joyfully celebrate the holiday, and G-d willing, we will experience a Purim miracle once again. May the coronavirus disappear as speedily as it came.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

Purim

It's almost Purim! a big part of the real Purim experience, is delivering Shalach Manos on Purim Day. We would love to have each family help deliver a few of our Purim gift bags to members of the community.

Children are encouraged to wear costumes and deliver the packages while wishing each family a Happy Purim! If your family is able to help, please let us know.

Don't forget: We are off for Spring break on March 22nd and March 25th. Classes will resume on March 29th
