FROM THE RABBI

The Quarantined Seder

There are many jokes floating around social media describing the challenges of being quarantined. It's hard to find a positive twist to this experience.

The Rebbe taught that in every challenge that we face, there must be a silver lining; it's just a matter of finding it.

According to the Pew Research, over 70% of American Jews attend a Seder. It's actually the most practiced ritual of the Jewish religion. But how many of them hosted a Seder in their own home?

The very first Passover, when the Israelites were still in Egypt, G-d ordered the Jews to quarantine themselves in their own homes. This was probably the only time that every single Jewish home hosted a Seder.

This year, perhaps for the first time since Egypt, in every Jewish home, the 4 questions will be asked, the Afikoman will be found, and the door will be opened for Elijah.

Next year in Jerusalem!

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

PRESCHOOL

Our Zoom classes are finally falling into place. Please note that we have switched Tae Kwando class to Tuesdays at 12:30 and Dance is Wednesday at 12:30 pm. Both classes will be recorded so your child can enjoy it even if they are not available at that time.

Model Seder

Our Model Seder is ON! Please invite grandparents and relatives to enjoy our LIVE Zoom Model seder on Monday, April 6th at 10:00 am. The children will be singing songs - we will even have soloists as we go through a short seder. Start chopping your charoset and make sure that you have some Matzah and grape juice at home!

HEBREW SCHOOL

Congratulations to Ariel Vilensky for being our first Black Belt in the Aleph Champion program! If you have not set up your child's private Zoom Aleph Champ tutoring, please contact Mushkie to do so.

Sunday Zoom classes have been busy learning the Passover songs, steps of the seder and even making Passover projects on Zoom. The K - 4th made seder plates or tie die Afikoman bags. Many 4th - 6th graders did a fabulous job making Matzah ball soup together on Zoom and we are looking forward to Charoset next week.

Please note: There will be no ZOOM class on Sunday, April 12th, but we will resume the Sunday Zoom classes on April 19th for as long as necessary!
