*Tisha B'av – which literally means the 9th day of the month of Av, is the day that the 1st & 2nd Temples in Jerusalem were destroyed (in 420 BCE and 70 CE, respectively.) To commemorate our loss, Jews the world over observe a day of mourning and fasting each year on Tisha B'av, the 9th day of Av.

FROM THE RABBI

The Last Jew

Last Thursday we commemorated the 26th Yahrzeit of the Rebbe. As I reflected on the Rebbe's life, I realized that while other leaders tried to accommodate the majority, the Rebbe was always concerned about the last individual that fell off the radar.

Whether a Jew in prison, or a traveler in Katmandu, the Rebbe would make sure that Chabad did not forget to bring the joy of each holiday to those that would otherwise be forgotten.

When he was once complimented for his concern for the most vulnerable souls, the Rebbe explained that there are many leaders in the Jewish community. Each of them typically cares for their own group. The definition of a Rebbe is someone that cares about every single Jew.
