FROM THE RABBI

Pew Report 2020

The Pew Report that was just released is packed with concerning data regarding the trends of the US Jewish community.

But there was also positive news there. 38% of all US Jews have engaged in some way with Chabad programs. 40% of those are active on a regular or semi-regular basis. 75% of those who are involved with Chabad do not self-identify as Orthodox. The younger the segment, the more connected they are with Chabad.

All of this is due to the extraordinary vision of the Lubavitcher Rebbe, whose Yahrzeit falls out this month, on June 13th. The Rebbe's approach of unconditional love for every Jew is resonating throughout the Jewish world.

Our last day of school was truly memorable!

Dodgeball tournament with staff vs students was really exciting and the students won all 3 rounds!
Cotton candy and an inflatable slide were enjoyed by all. The kids did an Aleph project as a souvenir and had one last time to improve their Hebrew reading for this year.
Thank you to our dedicated staff for keeping the school going and to all the parents for bringing your kids every week!
