FROM THE RABBI

Surfside Tragedy

There is an old superstition that bad things come in Threes. This certainly seemed true when the Condo collapsed in Florida, bringing the number of recent collapses in the Jewish community to three. Many people asked if Judaism also believes in it.

In 1992, there were three untimely deaths of women in the global Chabad community. The Rebbe was asked to pray for the community since there were three tragic events in a row.

The Rebbe answered that in Judaism we only link good events. When bad things happen, they each stand alone and we don't expect them to come in Threes!

In Judaism, the number three is a sign for good luck. In the memory of those who lost their lives in the recent tragedies, let's do Mitzvos in Threes!

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
