FROM THE RABBI

The Rebbe's Army

When the Rebbe sent the first Chabad emissary (shliach) to Morocco in 1950, no one could even imagine that seventy years later Chabad emissaries would be in every corner of the globe and number over 5,000 strong.

Chabad doesn't provide the young couple with any material assistance, but they take along with them 300 years of Chassidic teachings that all boil down to one belief; unconditional love and acceptance of every Jew.

This past weekend, in New York, I joined the Shluchim who came together from all over the world to celebrate the renaissance of Judaism and remind ourselves how lucky we are to be part of the Rebbe's army.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
