FROM THE RABBI

The Modern Day Maccabees

The Yeshiva University Maccabee basketball team has made it to the news with the longest winning streak in the history of college basketball.

The name Maccabee is famous from the Chanukah story where a small group of heroes fought against the mighty Greek army and brought about the miracle of Chanukah.

But less known is that the word Maccabee is an acronym of a famous biblical verse, that praises G-d: Mi Kamocha Baelim Hashem, 'Who is like You, G-d, among other supernal beings?! When you have G-d on your team, even the improbable becomes possible.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

HEBREW SCHOOL

Aleph Champ

Congratulations to all the students that have passed Aleph Champ levels this year and are moving up from color to color. Our unique Hebrew reading levels allows each student, grades 2 & up to move at their own pace, with their own private tutor each week.

Want your kids to sneak ahead? Simply use the color coded booklets on our Hebrew School website www.solonchabad.com/aleph to practice at home, and your child can be tested and get new medals as soon as we return from Winter Break!

The following will observe Yahrtzeit this month:
