FROM THE RABBI

Orphans in Ukraine

While the world is following the crisis between Russia and Ukraine, for me, it's personal. My sister and brother-in-law live in Ukraine and among many institutions, they established an orphanage for Jewish children who were either abandoned or have parents that can't raise them. They treat these 100 children like their own, providing for them from cradle to Chupah.

Last week, my sister posted a video of a Bris on our family chat and everyone was wondering who just had a baby! It was a Jewish child that was given up at birth, and he is the latest addition to their extended "family."

As the possibility of war intensifies, most foreign nationals are going back to their home countries, but for them, leaving is not an option.

We can only pray for peace in the region for everyone!

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

HEBREW SCHOOL

In honor of Tu B'Shvat, the New Year for Trees, our students went on a tour of Israel where the trees are starting to bloom!

Thank you the parent volunteers that came to make this event happen!

Jodi Audino, Navah Berg, Gil Even, Beth Ingerman, Inna Keselman, Amanda Rosenberg, & Stephi Walcoff

The tour included a visit to the Western Wall where the kids learned how to sign a note for G-d & watched a live stream of the Kotel! They did art in Sefad, tried some Dead Sea Mud on their skin and tasted from the 7 fruits of Israel at the Tel Aviv Shuk (marketplace)!
