FROM THE RABBI

Do you have a sister in Ukraine

This past week I was inundated with emails, phone calls and text messages from concerned friends asking how my sister in Odessa is doing.

It's not that people are just worried about my sister and her family, I can tell that there is a deep concern about the whole Jewish community that is stuck in the war zone.

Intellectually, Jewish people disagree about almost everything. However, in times of crisis, our deep emotional connections are revealed. We realize that ultimately, we are one people.

The Rebbe taught us that since we are interconnected, a mitzvah performed in one place can add to the protection of a Jew at the other side of the world. Let's each add a mitzvah for their sakes.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

HEBREW SCHOOL

Shabbat @ Home

Our Hebrew school students did a spectacular job preparing their own Shabbat at home. On Sunday everyone worked hard to prepare their own Shabbat box. They took home candles, grape juice, challah dough, decorations, desserts and had to set up their own table on Friday. We received 50 beautiful pictures of students and their ready Shabbat table.

65 families joined us for the Zoom right before Shabbat and enjoyed a Shabbat Kahoot Game. CONGRATULATIONS to our double winner: Kahoot & $50 Amazon gift card: Parker Frezel.
