FROM THE RABBI

Don't Put up a Wall

In the 60's, Rabbi Tzvi Greenwald, a charismatic Chabad Rabbi, used to visit Kibbutzim all over Israel to share Judaism with the members. He once told the Rebbe, that some were criticizing his non judgmental approach. They argued that he should be reprimanding the Kibbutzniks for their lack of Jewish observance.

The Rebbe looked at him very seriously and said, "The moment you criticize them, you will put up a wall between you, and then you will never be able to reach them!"

This coming month we will be observing the 29th Yahrzeit of the Rebbe, of righteous memory. Let's adopt his approach – when you meet another Jew, don't put up a wall!

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
