FROM THE RABBI

Tragedy

The news from Israel can be defined in one word: "Tragedy." When Jews fight with other Jews, it's a tragedy.

How should we approach this dispute or any kind of disagreements? If my own child were on the other side of the argument, I would find a way to prevent differences of opinion from ruining the relationship. I would do everything in my power to maintain the peace in my family. So, next time we encounter a Jew who strongly disagrees with us, we should ask ourselves: "And what if it were my own son or daughter?"

For the Jewish nation, unity is not a luxury – it's a matter of survival.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
