Happy Hour

FROM THE RABBI

Buy your wife jewelry...

Sukkot is a happy holiday! For a full eight days, it's actually a mitzvah to rejoice. How do you achieve that?

According to Jewish law, happiness must be celebrated in tangible ways: men are supposed to drink at least a 4 oz of wine each day of Sukkot, woman should get gifts and children be given treats.

But the best way to achieve joy is by celebrating with friends. We just built a new extra large Sukkah at Solon Chabad – make sure you stop in any time during the holiday. There will be a Lulav for you to bless and desserts to enjoy.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
