FROM THE RABBI

What can we do...

The war in Israel has shaken up our world as we know it. We are all stressed and distressed and wonder what we can do to make a difference.

There are the obvious efforts such as supporting the soldiers, praying for our brethren under fire, donning Tefillin and affixing Mezuzahs on our doors, as well as political activism. But in the long run, the biggest help that we can offer to the Jewish people as a whole, is to strengthen our own communities.

Thriving Jewish communities all over the world, is the best insurance for the survival of the Jewish people. Make sure that you are actively involved!

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
