FROM THE RABBI

Beginnings

Society celebrates graduations. College graduations, High School graduations and even Preschool graduation!

In contrast, Judaism celebrates beginnings. A Bris & baby naming, Bar/Bat Mitzvah, wedding -even a Torah party when children start learning Torah.

We are now coming from Simchat Torah, celebrating the reading of the Torah from the beginning.

Every morning, when you wake up, celebrate the beginning of a new day and the blessings that are awaiting you.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

Dad's & Doughnuts

Look out for an invitation for our event on Tuesday, November 12th. All dads are invited to join their child for doughnuts and fun in their classroom at 9:00 am.

HEBREW SCHOOL

Hebrew School kids enjoyed walking down the street to visit Sukkahs in honor of Sukkot!

Thank you to the Slater, Singerman, & Freedman families for hosting our students in their Sukkahs, and a huge thank you to the parent volunteers for leading the activities at each Sukkah: Anna Desatnik, Lauren Kirchenbaum, Anna Roytberg, & Jordan Walman.
