FROM THE RABBI

Bibas Children

The whole hostage crisis in Israel has been on everyone's mind for over 500 days, but interestingly, the loss of the Bibas babies took the pain to a whole new level. Jews the world over were touched to the core, feeling as if it was their own family member.

In Judaism, children are our most precious treasure. In the upcoming Purim story, Mordechai gathered thousands of children in Shushan to beseech G-d on behalf of the Jewish people. This prayer vigil was the turning point of the story and brought about the miracle of Purim. Children are the conduit between us and G-d.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

PRESCHOOL

Purim

So many festivities planned for our Preschoolers. All parents are invited to our masquerade and carnival
On Thursday, March 13 at 11:30 AM. The students will perform Purim songs and then enjoy a kiddy carnival thanks to our amazing volunteer moms.

Hamataash Bake

Our twos and young threes will be having a special hamantash bake on Wednesday, March 5 at 11:30 AM. Get ready to bake Hamantaschen from scratch and join your children for Purim activities in their classroom.

HEBREW SCHOOL

Purim

We are very excited for our annual Purim carnival, which will be during Hebrew School on Sun, March 9th! The older students have the opportunity to be leaders and run the booths for the younger grades. Make sure to come in costume!

Passover

Save the Date for the Candyland Seder on Sunday, April 6th! All Hebrew School families are invited for this immersive Passover experience to get ready for the holiday!
