FROM THE RABBI

Crunching into Tradition

Over the years, many of you have enjoyed Shmurah Matzah at your Passover Seder. What makes this matzah special?

Shmurah matzah is round and handmade, just like the Matzah the Israelites baked on their way out of Egypt. It's watched like a hawk from harvest to table, ensuring no water touches the grain, flour, or matzah.

Matzah symbolizes faith—reminding us how the Israelites relied on a little Matzah and a lot of G-d to sustain them in the desert.

So, let's crunch into tradition and faith!

Happy Passover!

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
