A MESSAGE FROM THE RABBI

50th

Lately, friends have been asking me how I feel about turning fifty; some get depressed by the thought of being half a century old. But I must say that I am simply looking forward to my Jubilee year.

If every birthday is an important milestone in a person's life, how much more so when it is a "Jubilee." In Biblical times, the Jubilee year was a sabbatical; a year dedicated to recharging spiritually.

I am not planning a Sabbatical, but I hope you will join me on a spiritual journey, beginning with a Shabbat Kiddush in honor of my birthday on Saturday, September 10th.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
