FROM THE RABBI

Past meets Future

This Sunday, Jews around the world will observe Tisha B'Av, commemorating the destruction of the First and Second Holy Temples in Jerusalem.

It's a day of fasting, reflection and mourning—but also one of hope. We look ahead to the coming of Moshiach and the rebuilding of the Temple.

This duality defines Jewish resilience: remembering our past while envisioning a brighter future. Let us take inspiration from this spirit and renew our prayers that redemption will come speedily in our days.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
