FROM THE RABBI

High Holiday Fever

Holiday Fever usually means stress—we need to take days off work, prepare Rosh Hashana dinner, and think about what to wear! And let's not forget: it's the Day of Judgment.

But Chassidic thought flips the script. The High Holidays are G-d's version of Thanksgiving. He's hosting, and we're all invited—to show up, pray, and be together with joy. If He's excited to see us, shouldn't we be excited too?

So yes, there's a lot to do—but beneath the hustle is a joyful celebration with G-d. Let's spread the fever.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
