FROM THE RABBI

January '26

As we enter the year 2026, the number itself carries meaning in Judaism. In gematria (numerical value), G-d's four-letter Name adds up to the number 26. The year '26 reminds us that G-d is not only found in prayer or special moments, but in every day of the year.

Recognizing His presence helps strengthen our trust in G-d — the understanding that we are not facing challenges alone. May this awareness give us greater confidence as we navigate the challenges and difficulties of daily life with G-d holding our hand.

Happy New Year

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg
