FROM THE RABBI

Winning the lottery

This Rosh Hashanah, as you sit around the table eating the brisket and dipping the apple in honey, think about the conversation. These days, it's hard for antisemitism not to come up.

Steer the conversation in a positive direction, so everyone walks away feeling that being Jewish is awesome. Point out the beauty of our traditions, our community, and how lucky we are. There is so much to celebrate, appreciate, and feel proud of in our Jewish lives. Being a Jew is like winning the lottery.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

PRESCHOOL

Lunch in the Sukkah

Our Preschool parents are invited to join their children for a special Lunch in the Sukkah on Tuesday Sept. 29 at 12:00 PM.

Each child may choose one special guest to invite —Mom, Dad, a grandparent, or another special person in their life.

We'll enjoy lunch together in the sukkah, sing some favorite holiday songs, and celebrate the beautiful traditions of Sukkot.

We look forward to sharing this special holiday experience.
