FROM THE RABBI

Election Season

It's election season, and everywhere you turn, people are talking about elections. In Hebrew, the word for elections is bechirot, which comes from the word bachar, meaning to choose.

Every morning, in the blessings before the Torah, we say, "Asher Bachar Banu"—G-d chose us.

But here's something beautiful about our relationship with G-d. It's a two-way election. G-d chose the Jewish people to be His people, and we chose Him to be our G-d.

And unlike political elections, this is a choice we get to make again every single day.

- Rabbi Zushe Greenberg

PRESCHOOL

Upcoming Preschool Events!

We're excited for our Havdalah PJ Party on Thursday, Nov. 12, at 5:30 PM! Children will enjoy lively entertainment with DJ Mark Frisky, pizza dinner and create their own Havdalah candles and spice boxes, and discover the beauty and fun of this special Shabbat tradition!

Meanwhile, parents can relax in a separate room with pizza, a little wine bar, and time to socialize and enjoy each other's company.

A huge thank you to our wonderful PTA for planning this special evening! We hope everyone will join us!

Important Reminders:

Nov. 13: No School – P/T Conferences
Nov. 25-27: No School
